"UNDINE" AT PASTIME TODAY.

"Undine," adapted from the classic French legend of the sea by Pierre de la Motte-Fouque, will be presented at the Pastime theater this afternoon at 2 and 3:30 and tonight at 7 and 8:30. Children occupying seats will be charged 10 cents the same as adults, owing to limited seating capacity of the Pastime, for showing such a wonderful picture. "Undine" is a Blue Bird production with Ida Schnall, embellished by a bevy of beautiful girl swimmers. A picture wonderfully staged and a triumph of the silent drama. It is similar to, yet far more lavish than "Neptune's Daughter," which was presented at the Opera House a year or so ago. "Undine" is the photoplay sensation of the year. A beautiful fairy story with pretty girls galore. See it this afternoon and avoid the night rush.
